OTF thanks Ontario's teachers – our Grade 10 students are financially literate

TORONTO, May 10, 2019 — Education Week gives us the opportunity to highlight the dedication of Ontario's teachers in publicly funded schools.

"The Ontario Teachers' Federation (OTF) thanks the educators in our schools for ensuring that our students receive the highest quality education," states Diane Dewing, OTF President. "Ontario education is acknowledged as one of the best in the world.

"The job of teaching is certainly one of the most challenging but, at the same time, the most rewarding. In light of the current climate in Ontario, we thank you for continuing to go beyond the limit in preparing our students to be productive and caring members of our society."

The Ontario Teachers' Federation is the advocate for the teaching profession in Ontario and for its 160,000 teachers. OTF members are full-time, part-time and occasional teachers in all the publicly funded schools in the province—elementary, secondary, public, Catholic and francophone.
