OTF announces the resignation of Tim Hodgson as a member of the Board of the Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan

TORONTO, March 26, 2025 — The Ontario Teachers' Federation (OTF) has reluctantly accepted the resignation of Tim Hodgson as a member of the Board of the Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan (OTPP) effective March 25, 2025.

Since his appointment to the Board in 2023 and throughout his tenure, Hodgson has demonstrated exceptional dedication, leadership, and commitment to supporting the retirement security of Ontario's teachers.

"We are deeply appreciative of Tim Hodgson's contributions to the Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan," said Mike Foulds, President of the Ontario Teachers' Federation. "His commitment to excellence and his careful attention to the work of the Board have played a key role in ensuring the stability and growth of the Plan. Ontario's teachers, both active and retired, have benefited greatly from his dedicated service."

As Hodgson concludes his tenure on the Board, OTF recognizes his invaluable contributions and wishes him continued success in his future endeavours.

The Ontario Teachers' Federation is the advocate for the teaching profession in Ontario and for its 160,000+ teachers. OTF members are full-time, part-time and occasional teachers in all the publicly funded schools in the province—elementary, secondary, public, Catholic and francophone.
